

Falcon Autumn 2022

Air Assaults over The Netherlands

When temperatures start to drop, daylight hours are declining, the leaves start to lose their green colours and falling down the trees, one knows autumn has started. In this time of year an energy boost is given to the Dutch army Lucht Mobile (Air Mobile Brigade) and the air forces Dutch Helicopter Command (DHC) when they join forces for the annual “Falcon Autumn” exercises. Also this year when Falcon Autumn 2022 marked the agenda for the first 3 weeks of November.

Falcon Autumn

The exercise has a tradition to be one of the larger scale army and helicopter exercises in Europe. Last year the usual participating ground forces and helicopters were joined

